

Black Wall Street Journey: Pop-Up Gallery Opening

Installation view, Black Wall Street Journey, at Urban Juncture, 2021.

Photo by Nicolette Stanton

Celebrate the opening of the Black Wall Street Journey pop-up gallery experience at Build Bronzeville's Urban Juncture. The afternoon features music, food, and a new art installation from Dorian Sylvain.

FREE, open to all.

---

Program video

---

About

Located in Bronzeville's 51st Street retail corridor, Urban Juncture is offering incubation space for Rick Lowe's Toward Common Cause project Black Wall Street Journey. The installation offers an ode to the village of Black enterprises here in Chicago. It features posters, the Black wealth video stream Black Wall Street Journal, and a mural by Dorian Sylvain and the Mural Moves collective—hand painted logos representing over 100 businesses and organizations that have elevated the quality of life for Chicagoans and beyond.

---

Supported by

Lead support for Black Wall Street Journey is provided by Allstate. Additional support has been provided by the National Academy of Design/Edwin Austin Abbey Memorial Trust Fund for Mural Painting; the Visiting Fellows Program at the Neubauer Collegium for Culture and Society; The Field Foundation of Illinois; and a series of collaborations with a host of local contributors. In-kind support is provided by JCDecaux.

---

Attend

Black Wall Street Journey: Pop-Up Gallery Opening

July 17, 2021 12:00-4:00pm

Address

Urban Juncture

5061 S Prairie Ave

Chicago, Illinois 60615

Contact

buildbronzeville.com

Related News

Building Black Wealth in Chicago and Beyond

Posted

Related Artists

Rick Lowe

Related Partners

Urban Juncture

Black Wall Street Journey

Smart Museum of Art