

Family Arts Crawl

An outdoor Family Day at the Smart Museum of Art.

Photo by Erik L. Peterson

Join us for an afternoon of scavenger hunts, kid-friendly tours, and hands-on art activities at the DuSable Museum of African American History, Logan Center for the Arts, and Smart Museum of Art. This creative trek connects three exhibitions through a bookmaking project inspired by the citywide initiative Toward Common Cause and the work of MacArthur Fellows like Kara Walker, Carrie Mae Weems, and Xu Bing.

Outdoor activities with socially-distanced accommodations

Stroll or take a shuttle bus

Drop by one museum or visit all three—no registration required

Music and light snacks provided

Masks required for indoor visits

Tours offered to family units and small pods

All activities are free!

Schedule

1–4 pm

DuSable Museum of African American History

740 East 56th Place, Chicago, IL 60637

Drop in and make cut paper collages and experience an installation by Kara Walker in the Roundhouse.

1–4 pm

Logan Center for the Arts

The University of Chicago, 915 E. 60th Street, Chicago, IL 60637

Design your own newspaper at an outdoor art-making station and take a self-portrait in the wicker “Black Panther” chair that’s included in an exhibition by Carrie Mae Weems.

1–4 pm

Smart Museum of Art

The University of Chicago, 5550 S. Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, IL 60637

Stop by the sculpture garden and create a paper tree house inspired by Xu Bing’s Forest Project, take part in a corrido singalong, and discover how artists are inspiring us to build a better future during guided tour of Toward Common Cause.

FREE, all materials provided. Activities best for kids ages 4–12, accompanied by an adult.
