The series Gómez-Peña's Mex Files: Audio Art and Strange Poetry from the US/Mexico Border is a multi-lingual live radio and archived audio program by performance artist, writer, activist, and MacArthur fellow Guillermo Gómez-Peña addressing the multiple pandemics of racism, sexism, militarism, and colonialism.

During confinement, Gómez Peña has been revisiting his imaginary radio station & his life experiences via past raw recordings that never saw the light of day. Classified Episode 1 shows how two decades can pass and still certain themes persist. This recording – spanning over 20 years of work – is more pertinent than ever.

Produced by Charly García and Stephanie Manriquez

Presented in partnership between Jane Addams Hull-House Museum, Public Media institute, and the University of Chicago's Smart Museum of Art. The series is an initiative of Toward Common Cause: Art, Social Change, and the MacArthur Fellows Program at 40.
