

On the Lawn with Katherine Davis In Celebration of Njideka Akunyili Crosby

Katherine Davis

As part of Toward Common Cause, a multi-site exhibition exploring questions of ownership and rights of access, National Public Housing Museum invites you to join us for On the Lawn with Katherine Davis, a concert with esteemed blues and jazz singer Katherine Davis and her band, to open a new public art project featuring images of two works by Njideka Akunyili Crosby.

The celebratory (25 min) set will take place on the lawn directly east of the building.

Register on Eventbrite

Know-before-you-go!

Blankets will be provided by the Museum, and will be spread out on the lawn, 6 feet apart. No food or drinks will be served and there are no on-site facilities.

Per applicable CDC, State and City of Chicago guidance, fully-vaccinated staff and visitors are not required to wear face coverings or social distance, but people who are not fully vaccinated must continue to wear face coverings and practice social distancing.

Attend

On the Lawn with Katherine Davis In Celebration of Njideka Akunyili Crosby
July 22, 2021 6:00-7:00pm

Address

1322 W Taylor St
1322 W Taylor St
Chicago, Illinois 60607

Contact

Related Artists

Njideka Akunyili Crosby

Related Partners

National Public Housing Museum