

The Fall of the House of Lead

Mel Chin, Safehouse in New Orleans, where the Fundred Project was launched in 2008.

Photo by Mel Chin, courtesy of Fundred Project.

A safe house door adorns the front a house painted all in white. Five people and a toddler look on questioningly and detritus lines the sidewalk.

Toward Common Cause exhibiting artist Mel Chin inaugurates the Civic Arts Church at Sweet Water Foundation as headquarters for the Chicago Fundred Initiative: A Bill for IL.

Presented on the 12th anniversary of the Fundred Initiative, Chin will be joined by Sweet Water Foundation Executive Director Emmanuel Pratt and participants from the Smart Museum and SkyART teen programs to collectively imagine a future free from lead poisoning.

FREE.

This program is co-presented by the Smart Museum of Art, Sweet Water Foundation, and Public Media Institute.

Program video

Attend

The Fall of the House of Lead

October 31, 2020 1:00-2:30pm

Contact

Related News

Chicago Fundred Initiative: A Bill for IL

Posted

Related Artists

Mel Chin

Related Partners

SkyART

Sweet Water Foundation

Smart Museum of Art

Public Media Institute