Carrie Mae Weems: A Land of Broken Dreams

July 17–December 12, 2021

For Toward Common Cause, the Logan Center presents an array of media and objects—photography, video, texts, bric-a-brac, and furniture—through which Carrie Mae Weems reimagines the Black Panther Party’s programs for young people in Chicago during the late 1960s and early 70s.

In the main gallery space, visitors are invited to browse, sit, and explore a classroom setting, which is replete with desks, chairs, books, a blackboard, view masters, and posters of historic Black leaders. A smaller gallery space, designed to resemble a theater, will screen video works by Carrie Mae Weems. As a whole, this exhibition probes notions of education and ideals for political parties, revolutions, and their leaders.
