Urban Juncture

Installation view, Black Wall Street Journey, at Urban Juncture, 2021. Photo by Nicolette Stanton

Urban Juncture revitalizes disinvested Black urban communities by rebuilding neighborhood commerce around culture and innovation. Urban Juncture's five core Build Bronzeville initiatives work together to support and advance locally-owned, culture-based enterprises and catalyze neighborhood revitalization.

Plan your visit

Visit Black Wall Street Journey space at Urban Juncture during regular Wednesday pop-up markets, happening every other week from 4–7 pm. Browse the upcoming schedule of events and plan your visit to Urban Juncture.

Black Wall Street Journey

Ongoing

Located in Bronzeville's 51st Street retail corridor, Urban Juncture is offering incubation space for Rick Lowe's Toward Common Cause project Black Wall Street Journey. The installation offers an ode to the village of Black enterprises here in Chicago. It features posters, the Black wealth video stream Black Wall Street Journal, and a mural by Dorian Sylvain and the Mural Moves collective—hand painted logos representing over 100 businesses and organizations that have elevated the quality of life for Chicagoans and beyond.

Plan your visit during Boxville Wednesday Markets

Address
300 E 51st St
300 E 51st St
Chicago, Illinois 60615

Contact
urbanjuncture.org

Related Artists
Rick Lowe

Related Events
Opening Celebration
July 17, 2021 12:00-4:00pm